

HEIRS OF ALPHA

The light shaped by an unyielding seven--- and evinced through generations
 Who choose to believe;

We offer you access into the bond we cherish---
So open your life and Prepare to receive.

The greatness ended not at the inception--- But continued to spawn legacies to Transcend and uphold---

No other sands set aflame to initiate--- Would drape you in the Powers of the black and gold.

Though a heritage of pioneering and distinction---
Must not rest in the ritual
 Nor in its past---

For it's up to you to sustain the legacy--- and scion movements for Believers to surpass;

In my hand is the key to its vitality---
Packaged with service and love
 For humanity---

Although massive--- the gift shall never lay heavy---
If allegiances are pledged
 Through humility;

Now close your eyes while carrying the flame--- Then pledge to the challenge to Forever ignite---

Then you'll too own the legacy of Alpha--- and strengthen the core of our fraternal light.
